

COUNTRY CROSSROADS QUILT GUILD

2025 PROGRAM PLAN

January

“Getting to Know You.” The Executive Officers will be interviewed. So, let’s get to know them and see what they will bring to our new year!

February

"That Special Ruler". Four of our members will be demonstrating and showing special rulers and things they have made with them.

March

Alterations Tips and Tools presented by our own Jeannie Brinkmeier.

APRIL

“Grandma’s Apron.” The presenters are Kris Winkler and Lynn Lokken from Monroe, WI. They will tell a story and show examples of aprons through the ages. They have over 300 aprons in their collection, mostly from the 30s and 50s.

May

Mary Alice Hart will do a program called Trash to Treasure.

June

three of our own members will present a program on long arming. Please bring any questions you might have relating to your long arming experiences.

July

Our speaker for the July meeting will be Linda Halpin from Reedsburg, Wi. Linda will be presenting a program “Borders on Parade” sharing quilts from her personal collection, examining dozens of variations on border treatments.

August

The August event will be our Annual Picnic Potluck.

September

Jill Shaulis, Quilt Designer and owner of Yellow Creek Quilt Shop in Lanark, IL, will present a trunk show displaying her new fabric line and patterns plus more of her quilts from previous years.

October

Lisa Furliegh from Quilting the Valley, LaSalle, IL will be presenting a trunk show of offerings available in her shop as well as sharing her journey as a Quilt Shop Owner.

November

The November event will be our Annual Holiday celebration.
